

BOARD OF TRUSTEES
EASTERN IOWA COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT
March 8, 2010

The Board of Trustees of the Eastern Iowa Community College District (Merged Area IX) met in Regular Session on March 8, 2010, in the Ellis Vetter Room at 306 West River Drive, Davenport, Iowa. President Robert Gallagher called the meeting to order at 7:00 p.m. with the following directors present: Kendra Beck, Mary Lou Engler, John Frampton, Bill Phelan, Milton Shaw and Shirley Stewart. Absent: Dr. Joseph D'Souza, Bill Vetter.

The Board conducted a public hearing on the 2010-2011 Budget Estimate. No one appeared to speak for or against the budget estimate, and President Gallagher closed the public hearing at 7:02 p.m.

Minutes from the February 15, 2010, Regular Board meeting had been mailed to the Board members for their review. Director Phelan moved, seconded by Director Stewart, to approve the minutes as submitted. Ayes: all. Nays: none. Motion carried.

Director Frampton presented an IACCT update. He reported that a few plots remain available in the IACCT landscaping plan. The Board was asked how they would like to participate.

Director Phelan moved, seconded by Director Frampton, to delegate to Chancellor Keir the authority to recommend what contribution EICCD should make to the IACCT landscaping project. Ayes: all. Nays: none. Motion carried.

Staff reports were presented. Dr. Jeff Armstrong, president of Muscatine Community College, introduced the fine arts faculty coordinators from Clinton, Muscatine and Scott Community Colleges. Robyn Smith of Clinton Community College talked about the art classes offered at CCC, as well as some of the arts-related activities there. She introduced three art students – Jackie Couppee, Lindsay Gibson and Nick Teachout — who shared their work with the Board. Rob Lipnick, art instructor at Scott Community College, talked about the art program at SCC, noted the connections the program has with area schools and organizations such as the Figge Art Museum, and showed slides of student work and art field trips. Jan Phillips, music instructor at Muscatine Community College, talked about the unique music program at MCC, how students can transfer to four-year colleges with junior status, and the performance opportunities available to students. She introduced student Joe Berns of Dubuque, who talked to the Board about his experiences in the music program. Chancellor Keir thanked the students for coming and praised the faculty members for their dedication and innovation.

Dr. Nancy Kothenbeutel gave the Board an update on the potential cooperative efforts with area law enforcement agencies for training at the Midwest Center for Safety &

Rescue Training. She has met with many chief law enforcement officials in the region and is working on a bi-state approach. Federal funding for such a program is a possibility and the interested parties will next outline how such a center could work. Board members encouraged Dr. Kothenbeutel to continue exploring this opportunity.

Rich Horst, director of development, was asked to give a status report on the Capitol Theatre. Chancellor Keir noted that she has authorized hiring a consultant to investigate the costs of two options, either mothballing the theatre or updating it to code specifications. Mr. Horst noted that such costs should also include replacing the roof and some exterior work needed on the stage house, two projects that will need to be undertaken in the next three to five years. He said that the theatre group is still working on obtaining financing in hopes of making the original project idea work. Chancellor Keir stated that she would like to have a recommendation ready by the end of March for what the District should do with the building.

A list of personnel items was presented for Board approval. Director Frampton moved, seconded by Director Shaw, to approve the personnel list as submitted. Ayes: all. Nays: none. Motion carried.
