Pre-Travel Quiz: Attach this quiz to your answer sheet. You must either type or PRINT in INK your responses on a separate page in order to get full credit. Failure to follow instructions will result in a 20% deduction.

Look at the materials I gave you.

1. Map: Which two seas border Hangzhou? (One sea borders it, the other nearly does.)
2. Where is the capital of China from Hangzhou?
3. What countries border China? (Note four.)
4. What is the largest city in China? How many people live there?

5. What is the currency of China?

6. Who is the president of China and what is his connection to Muscatine, IA?

7. Find the currency exchange site I give you in this packet. What is $1 U.S. equivalent to in China? What is $10 equivalent to?

8. Why won’t you likely find many of your favorite U.S. television programs while you are in China?

Introduction to China

9. Where is the world’s largest public square?

10. What is The Bund in Shanghai? (You might need to Google this.)

11. Most people in China eat with utensils like we have. True or False?

12. What is the capital of the Zhejiang Province?

13. Which area in Hangzhou has many historical sites, gardens, teahouses and reflecting pools?
14. What are three kinds of products one can find in Hangzhou’s traditional Qinghefang Old Street?

Hangzhou, China

15. What is the preferred beverage for all Chinese to relax with and enjoy?

16. What are the two most prevalent religions showcased in this ancient imperial capital? (They are listed first in the list.)

17. Surprisingly, Hangzhou does not emphasize formal advanced education. True or False?

18. What is Longjing and is it important to the culture of Hangzhou?

19. Of the food listed in Zhejiang Cuisine, what is one dish you would be willing to try?

20. Which two products is Hangzhou best known for?

21. Approximately what will be the temperature for when we travel there? What is also important for you to pack and why? (See my note in parentheses!)

22. It is best to use a debit or credit card when possible. True or False?

23. When meeting someone for the first time, what is similar to our etiquette and what is different?

24. What three things did you learn when you read about Dining Etiquette?

Hangzhou Safety Tips:

25. What should you carry in places hard-to-reach for people in a crowd?

26. Why would keeping your wallet, passport and cell phone in front pockets be better than in your back pockets? (Or why would a purse or bag carried close to your body be better than simply slung over one shoulder?)
27. Since tap water is NOT safe to drink, should you avoid the following as well?

   a. Ice in water?
   b. Brushing your teeth with tap water?
   c. Rinsing food with tap water?

28. If our meeting is to start at 14:30, what time does it start?
29. If the concert begins at 20:00, what time does it begin?

30. Why is it important to learn a few basic phrases in Mandarin?

Wanxiang Corporation  (2 bonus points possible)

31. What is the facebook ID to learn more about this program from others?

32. Why does the founder of the Florence Fang Family Foundation think it is vital for American students to study Mandarin Chinese and go to China?

Oral Language: See the site I give you to practice basic phrases in Mandarin Chinese—www.travlang.com  Once on the page on the right hand side scroll down and choose “Pu tong hua Mandarin” Then, just scroll down (past the ads) until you see the phrase selection.

Listen—several times—and learn to say the following phrases or words:

1. Yes            No
2. Please
3. Thank-you
4. Hello
5. Goodbye
6. I do not understand. (2 pts.—get the accents and intonations exact!)
7. Do you speak English? (2pts.—know when to insert the word “English” in Chinese)

Note: It is possible that you will want to take some small index cards with you with key phrases written in “pinyin.” Pinyin is the written Chinese language with Roman characters like we use, not Chinese characters.